

TENNESSEE WOMEN OF COLOR ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Tennessee Women of Color Advisory Committee is a branch organization of the Tennessee Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence. Our society is a rainbow of colors, races, religions, classes and attitudes. We all have rights. Women of Color have a right to use their voices to speak out against violence, racism and oppression that they experience from men and society. However, individually, Women of color often feel invisible and powerless. The Tennessee Women of Color Advisory Committee is your collective voice and will speak for you. The Women of Color Advisory committee wants to act upon your concerns. Your voice is the key to your empowerment, and others as well. Use it! Silence kills. Women of color survivors of domestic and sexual violence can receive support and shelter services when in immediate danger, crisis, or just need someone to listen.
